Fight Promoter Disputes the Right of Constabulary to Collect Gambling Licenses.

RAWHIDE, Nev., April 13,-A clash between the state police and the authorities of Esm ralda county is imminent. An attempt on the part of the state constabulary to collect gambling licenses from Tex Rickard resulted in that person refusing to adhere to the demands of the police. He recognizes no authority save the sheriff's office in the matter of collecting gambling licenses. District Attorney Swellow has wired to Rickard to stand pat in the matter, as the police are for the purpose of enforcing law and order only. If the police arrest Rickard he will appeal to Acting Governor Dickerson for relief.
